Dear Md. Ashfaul Haque,

Paper ID: 359
Title: ML Classifier Comparative Performance Analysis of Prediction on Cervical Cancer
Decision: Accept

Congratulations!

We are delighted to inform you that your paper has been provisionally accepted for the ICECIT 2021.

Now, we would like to request you to submit the camera-ready copy of your paper through CMT. The detailed guidelines for camera-ready submission and registration are given on the conference website:
<https://conference.ku.ac.bd/ICECIT/2021/>

In preparing the camera-ready copy, please follow the reviewers' comments (if any), check your figures, equations, and tables of your paper (if any), the spelling of the authors' names and affiliations, and common grammatical errors (if any) as well. Your paper and references MUST be written according to IEEE format. You are requested NOT to INCLUDE any author in your paper if he or she is in the IEEE prohibited authors' list.

Please make sure the similarity/plagiarism score is low. IEEE may reject a paper at the end if it has a higher score (usually >30%).

We appreciate your interest in ICECIT 2021 and cordially invite you to attend the conference to enjoy the technical and social interactions with academia and researchers.

We also look forward to receiving submissions from you at future conferences.

Best regards,

2021 International Conference on Electronics, Communications and Information Technology Team
